

Richie says . . .

- . . this is what good readers do
- when they get stuck on a word

- Re read. Go back to the beginning of the sentence and read again.
- Read on. Leave the word out and read to the end of the sentence.
- If you know the first letter sound, or blend, say that and read on to the end of the sentence.

Now ask yourself:

- What word would make sense?
- Does the word you are thinking of, look right?
- Does the word you are thinking of, sound right?
